

September is National Biscuit Month!

It's time to get baking; September is all about biscuits!

In celebration of our favorite month of the year, we've created a biscuit-a-day calendar to help your kitchens delight patrons this fall. From comfort-style entrées to breakfast creations and tempting desserts, take a peek here to find inspiration for your next menu hit.

The 411 on Biscuits

It's no surprise that biscuits have been a guest favorite for decades: consumers love their delicate, flakey texture and mouthwatering flavor, while their versatility across dayparts and menu categories makes them a go-to choice for operators. Over the past five years, Chicken Biscuits have grown an impressive 73%, while time-honored Buttermilk Biscuits have also gained: +20%.

Biscuit Pairings: What's Trending

- Artisan Accents: smoked cheddar, brie, prosciutto, fig preserves, or housemade pepper jelly
- Flavorful: hot sauce, pickled onions, apple butter, and "everything" spice accompaniments
- Distinctively Southern: Nashville Hot, fried green tomatoes, pimento cheese
- Hearty Accompaniments: bowls, shrimp & grits, pot pies married with biscuits
- Dessert Renditions: cobblers, French toast flavored, glazed sweet biscuits, fried biscuit dough
